Advisory Notes:

1. Disclosable court history are those court outcomes that can be disclosed in compliance with various State and Commonwealth legislation, and/or the policies governing the disclosure of court outcomes by police jurisdictions.
2. There is a time lapse between the recording of court outcomes by the courts and updating of the criminal records databases of police jurisdictions and the national reference system. This certificate only reflects the completeness and accuracy of these records on the date of issue.
3. The criminal records database used by, or available to, the Western Australian Police, contains court outcomes and pending charges resulting from investigations initiated by police. Offences investigated and prosecuted by non-police agencies may not be included in this certificate.
4. Western Australian traffic conviction history can be obtained by applying for a traffic conviction certificate.
